In this play, he drives left, creates separation and hits the midrange jumper. He is a good rebounder and is able to push the ball up the court quickly in transition. He is an excellent passer and can find open teammates. One example, he caught the rebound and threw the cross court pass to DJ Rodman for a layup. He was able to contribute to his team in a variety of ways before fouling out with 4:49 minutes left of the game.

One thing he didn't do well was he was too flashy as far as passing. In one play, He was involved in a two on one fastbreak and did a behind the back pass. Another one was his fouls. He got into foul trouble not moving his feet and not having any defense awareness.
