

Jared McCain vs Michigan State 11/14/23 – In Person

Seemed a bit hesitant by the atmosphere of the game. I noticed that down the stretch of the game he stopped looking for his shot as much, and the coach benched him for a guard with more confidence.

Inefficient game for him, he struggled to take defenders off of the dribble, and did not convert the few open looks that he was able to get.

McCain showed adequate defense in a team setting. Despite his smaller size he did a good job of fighting through screens.

Was not the best game for him on offense, but he had a solid showing defensively.
